Celebrating Ordinary Time

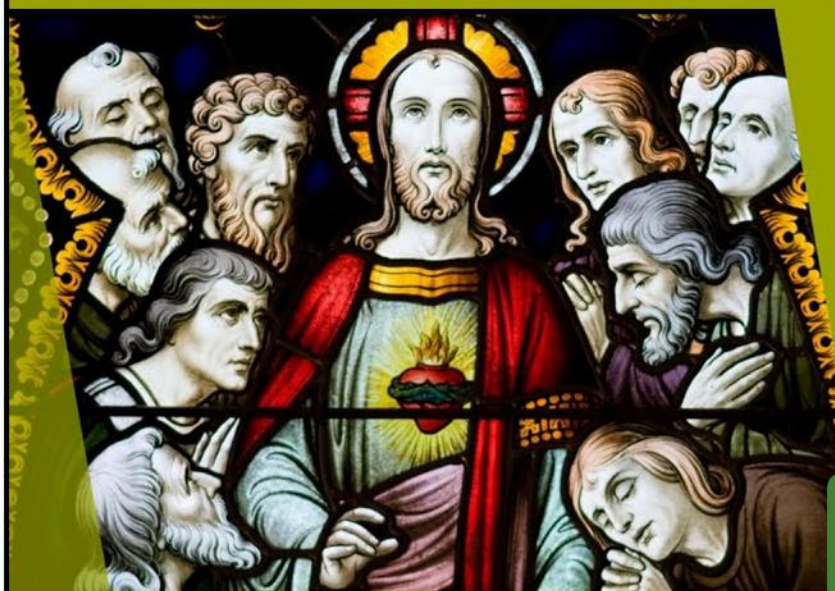

In Ordinary Time
the Church unfolds the whole of Christ's mystery,
our hope and life in Him,
especially at Holy Mass on Sundays as the Word enables us to grow and bear good fruit in
"time throughout the year" (tempus per annum)

The season begins on the Monday following the Sunday after January 6 and continues until the day before Ash Wednesday; it begins again on the Monday
after Pentecost Sunday and ends on the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent

THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR

- Contains 33 or 34 weeks
- Sundays are marked numerically (eg. First Sunday in Ordinary Time)
- Green is the colour for Sundays and ferial days

"Do not be afraid to give your time to Christ! Yes, let us open our time to Christ, that he may cast light upon it and give it direction... Time given to Christ is never time lost, but is rather time gained, so that our relationships and indeed our whole life may become more profoundly human."

(POPE JOHN PAUL II, DIES DOMINI, 7)

Ordinary Time comes from the Latin adjective "ordinalis" which means "number" or "succession."

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JUNE 13, 2021

Though we have been out of the Easter Season for the past three weeks, we are only now seeing a return of the green of Ordinary Time. Following our last two weekends that celebrated the Solemnities of the Holy Trinity and of Corpus Christi, the Church now enters into the Eleventh Sunday of Ordinary Time this weekend (June 12th/13th).

Throughout Ordinary Time, we will continue to walk with our Lord through the Gospel of St. Mark. During this time, we are called to grow in the moral life. Or, as St. Paul describes, to "attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God." (Ephesians 4:13)

GRADUATE'S MASS

This weekend, we celebrate and pray for our high school graduates. At today's 10 AM morning Mass, our graduates join us in their caps and gowns as we congratulate them on their graduation and ask the Lord to bless them as they enter into the next stages of their lives. We will conclude this Mass with a special blessing prayed over our graduates. May we keep each of them, and all of our students, in our prayers.

At this time of year, I always call to mind the words my childhood pastor shared with us at our graduation: "Stay close to the Catholic Church and you will be at peace." As I would later learn, his words were not his own, but were paraphrasing the words of St. Padre Pio: "Stay close to the Catholic Church at all times, for the Church alone can give you true peace, since She alone possesses Jesus, the true Prince of Peace in the Blessed Sacrament." May each graduate always know this true peace of Jesus in their lives.

FATHER'S DAY BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN

Next weekend, our nation celebrates Father's Day to recognize the great gift that is fatherhood. In honor of this celebration, in this Year of St. Joseph, we will be partaking in the Baby Bottle Campaign to support Helping Hands Pregnancy Center. Our Knights of Columbus will be passing out Baby Bottles in the narthex after each Mass next weekend. We invite you to take a Baby Bottle home and, over the next month, fill it with spare change.

Helping Hands is one of several local organizations that our parish supports in their outreach to families right here in our community. All proceeds from the Baby Bottle Campaign will go directly to Helping Hands. Baby Bottles can be returned in the collection basket each weekend or to the Parish Office during the week.

FREE MONTHLY BOOKS IN THE NARTHEX

At the beginning of each month, both Our Sunday Visitor and TAN Books offer sales on a variety of books. I often find several titles mixed in with these monthly sales that are interesting and, at the reduced price, entirely affordable. This is often a great chance to update my own bookshelf as well as the shelves in our parish library. To get the sale price, however, requires purchasing several copies of each book.

When making a purchase, I take one book for my shelf, one for the parish library, and place the remaining books in the narthex. Feel free to help yourselves to these books! Once you finish one, please pass it along to family and friends who would appreciate it. This month's releases include: Where We Got the Bible: Our Debt to the Catholic Church, The Catholic Faith: An Introduction to the Creeds, and A Pocket Guide to the Mass.

A new book on Blessed Father Solanus Casey, OFM Cap., who lived at St. Felix Friary in Huntington, Ind., from 1946 to 1956, is being compiled and edited by Richard G. Beemer. He is in search of personal encounters, memories, reflections, and especially favors attributed to his intercession during his 10 years at St. Felix. He touched many lives throughout Indiana and beyond.

Beemer requests that contributors send a high-resolution photo of themselves as well. He also needs contributors to provide, in writing, their phone numbers, email addresses, and permission to edit and publish their stories and photos.

Mail your story and photo to Father Solanus Casey, P.O. Box 701, Huntington, IN 46750, or email them to richardbeemer8@gmail.com.

Profits from the book will be donated to The Open Door, a 23-year-old nonprofit organization sponsored by St. Mary and Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic parishes in Huntington, Ind., whose volunteers cook and deliver homemade hot soup, a side and a dessert to more than 250 people in Huntington County, Ind.

ST. JOSEPH'S CORNER

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.
